THE "FROZEN" GOSPEL

By Tamarée Goertzen

The ground FREEZES hard with the chill of winter, and maybe our hearts feel a little bit the same way.

When GREY SKIES HANG HEAVY OVER WINTERED SOULS, it's not crazy to feel just a little bit lost.

LOST IN OUR PAST FAILURES, OUR MISTAKES, OUR PAIN

- we wonder if we will ever find our way.

CAN WE EVER BE FULLY KNOWN AND TRULY LOVED?

Hope can grow dim when our failures loom large. And sometimes it's easier to run into a DARK FOREST than to turn towards the light.

Yet, the more we run, the more lost we become. A STORM

RAGES INSIDE, and the ICE CAN GROW THICK OVER A COLD AND

WEARY SOUL. We stand FROZEN; stuck in the life we've chosen.

WHEN WE'RE LOOKING FOR A WAY OUT, THE WAY OUT IS THIS

- a Redeemer who can thaw the most frozen of hearts. GOD, in the
MOST SACRIFICIAL ACT OF TRUE LOVE, SENT HIS SON TO RESCUE US.

And we can have the HAPPY ENDING — the thawing of our frozen hearts — because of the beating of Jesus' heart after death.

HE IS THE ONLY WAY OUT. HIS LOVE FOR US RUNS WARM THROUGH OUR VEINS, AND THE REDEMPTION OF OUR OWN ICY VILLAINOUS HEARTS IS TRUE. GOD SENT A SAVIOR TO FREE
US FROM THIS KINGDOM OF ISOLATION, SO WE COULD LIVE IN HIS KINGDOM FOREVER.

And in the midst of our RAGING BLIZZARD we start to see it clear - how

ONLY AN ACT OF TRUE LOVE CAN THAW A FROZEN HEART.

A1: MOMS IN PRAYER

9:05-9:45

Shawna Vinkenberg - vinkenberg@hamilton.net

Being a mom to three wonderful kiddos is such a delight but it's also HARD! 1 Peter 5:8 reminds us that the Evil Foe, "prowls around like a roaring lion looking to devour" the mind, body, spirit and lives of our kids. Thankfully ladies, we are not going through this parenting gig alone! We've been given one of the best weapons on this side of heaven---PRAYER -- A direct line of communication and assistance 24/7, 365 days a year with our almighty God- The Maker of Heaven and Earth! When we combine praying God's Word over our kids with the beautiful support of faithful, praying girlfriends, we have an unstoppable weapon in our parenting toolbox-- a weapon that turns fear into faith, worry into peace and sends Satan scurrying away! I'm excited to share about the power of prayer and the endless benefits of regularly praying alongside other sisters-in-Christ. "...pour out your heart like water in the presence of the Lord. Lift up your hands to HIM for the lives of your children..." Lamentations 2:19

Amy Owens - Owensamy10@gmail.com

I'm a mom of 10 children through a blended family that merged 3.5 years ago. I moved from Sioux Falls, SD. Prayer has been my lifeline through my life as a believer. Joining Moms in Pray has brought me alongside other pray warriors. This group of women and through prayer my transition to a new area with added children has made the impossible possible. To watch prayers answered for our children is one of the many blessings in life. Having sisters in Christ through Moms in Prayer gives me strength to face a hard decisions and to not just survive but to thrive. I thank God for pray warriors.

Marci Epp - Rickepp@hamilton.net

Southern Belle living on a Midwest farm! Married to my favorite for 31 years! I've been at stay-at-home-momma to 4 favorite daughters & am enjoying "empty-nest" for the first time this Fall! I talk to God all the time & would be lost without that privilege! Praying with other gals is icing on the cake! "Pray in the Spirit at all times & on every occasion. Stay alert & be persistent in your prayers for all believers everywhere." Eph. 6:18

A2: SPIRITUAL GIFTS

9:05-9:45

Hannah Beck - hannah.beck23@gmail.com

As the body of Christ, we have all been given gifts and talents that we can use to further the Kingdom of God. These gifts and talents are unique and given with purpose by the Holy Spirit. Scripture teaches us about these gifts and how we have been wired with specific desires. It's our responsibility to use these gifts as intended (Romans 12:3-8, Ephesians 4:11-16, 1 Corinthians 12-14). There are a number of spiritual gifts such as teaching, evangelism, hospitality, administration, leadership, giving, wisdom, discernment, faith, encouragement, shepherding, mercy, prophecy, helps, intercession and knowledge. Together, we are going to discover the specific gifts God wired us with and practical ways we can use them.

B1: DOES MY KID QUALIFY?

9:45-10:25

Stacie Faber - faber@hamilton.net

Psalms 25:4 "Show me your ways, Lord, teach me your paths." As an educator, I see firsthand that our whole lives are spent learning new things! Some things we learn from books, classes, or mentors. Others we learn from our children and seeing the world through their eyes. I am a speech language pathologist who has worked for 19 years in early childhood education. I participated in "speech" myself as a young girl who couldn't pronounce "s" sounds. Our children are our hearts walking outside our bodies. We do anything to help and protect them. We can be worried or afraid if we think our child may be developing at a different pace than expected. God has a plan. We can learn so much from the people God places in our path to help our children.

Carla Christensen - carlachristenson@gmail.com

Carla is a mother to 3 boys: Graham (13), Henry (11) and Oliver (6) and wife to John. She is an occupational therapist at Memorial Community Health in Aurora and serves the Aurora Public Schools. She has a passion for serving children and teaches Sunday School and helps with AUJANA. God has shown me through my own children and the children I work with how differently, but perfectly He creates each one. I would love to share some tips and tricks for helping facilitate your child's development as well as answer questions you have.

Katy Bates - Katykann@gmail.com

I am a stay at home mom and wife! I have 3 kids, Elsie (2), Archer (5), and Lawson (6). Lawson is Autistic. It's been a tough and sometimes isolating journey through the ups and downs of having a "special needs" child but I'm so grateful that God felt like I could handle this sweet boy! Even on the worst days he is a blessing. I would love to answer any questions or support other moms who may or may not be on the same path.

B2: WOMEN OF THE WORD

9:45-10:25

Kaylee Freese - kayleefreese@gmail.com

I believe we are deeply relational people, as our Heavenly Father is deeply relational. It has brought me so much joy to walk in my Christian faith alongside women older and younger than myself.

Gaining wisdom and seeking counsel from those older has been crucial for me during difficult seasons, and I have found no greater joy than to see those younger than myself grow in their walk with the Lord. I truly believe this is a vital piece to our walk with the Lord as we study God's word together. "And let us consider how we may spur one another on toward love and good deeds, not giving up meeting together, as some are in the habit of doing, but encouraging one another--and all the more as you see the Day approaching." Hebrews 10: 24-25 - "As iron sharpens iron, so one person sharpens another." Proverbs 27:17

Briana Broeder - 1bbroeder@gmail.com

Life is busy! Regardless of how your days are filled, I'm sure you know the challenge of trying to make time to learn more about God and to grow in your relationship with Him. Hebrews 4 talks about how the Word of God is living and active- they are not just words on the page of an ancient book. I had an "ah ha" moment in high school when I read Isaiah 55 "For My thoughts are not your thoughts, nor are your ways My ways," declares the Lord. "For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are My ways higher than your ways and My thoughts higher than your thoughts." It goes on to talk about how God's Word goes out with a purpose and will not return without accomplishing what He desires, and "succeeding in the matter for which (He) sent it." God has a much higher perspective of our lives and He knows things that we do not. Our time in His Word is NEVER wasted. Whether it's an hour of sitting and reading, 3 minutes of taking in a verse before or between other activities, listening to a sermon or podcast filled with God's Word, etc. It's valuable, it's powerful, and it's worth making time for! Even if we have to get creative in different seasons to make it happen!

Angie Seip - theseips99@yahoo.com

Holy God, Sinful human. Reading the Bible reveals both. Seeking and living out God's truth in a deceitful world with a deceitful heart is a battle. I am so thankful for His power, love, forgiveness, grace, and mercy to win this battle. Holy God. Changing heart. To Him be the glory forever.

Joann Hattan - joannhattan@gmail.com

I grew up on a farm south of Aurora. My early education was at Harvard - Nebraska, not the university. I graduated from Nebraska Christian High School in Central City and earned a degree in Health Information Management. I've been married to my high school sweetheart, Roger for 41 years. We have 2 daughters who are married and both live in Gretna. Jacques and her husband, Trevor have 2 sweet little boys and Lindsay and her husband Matthew have been married a little over a year. Jacques says that she feels like she grew up in a Hallmark Christmas movie; we had a Choose & Cut Christmas tree farm and grandma owned a bakery! I recently retired from 28 years as the elementary school librarian in Aurora, a job that I loved. But, I am finding that retirement definitely has its perks! I accepted Jesus as my Savior as a child and through the ups and downs of life I have learned the joy of walking with Him and trusting His sovereign will. I grow more in love with His Word all the time and am continually amazed at how it truly is "new every morning."

C1: AFTER THE HONEYMOON

10:25 - 11:05

Carson & Jessa Klute - Jessa.klute@gmail.com

At just 15 years old, I started dating the cute boy from youth group. Now, we've been married almost 7 years with 2 sweet boys, Cooper (3) and Carter (1). We haven't been married as long as others, but we've learned, struggled, and grown up with each other every step of the way. Each day, we continue to learn about God's grace, how to be patient with each other, and the tricks that work for our relationship. There is nothing like getting to do life with your best friend!

Jeff & Michelle Sutter - msutter5926@gmail.com

"This is the Day the Lord has made, let us rejoice and be glad in it." Psalms 118:24 This scripture was on the bulletin for our wedding day and is still on our hearts after 22 years of marriage. We love knowing God is with us through the ups and downs in marriage, parenting and life. We take things day by day while we work through life together and have come to find out that our strength is not enough but with God on our side, anything is possible.

Cal & Sara Strong - sstrong@hamilton.net

We will be celebrating our 35th wedding anniversary this May. We have experienced different seasons of affection for one another throughout the years. Our greatest marital advice is to not give up on one another, no matter what you feel, but be committed to God's design for marriage. Fulfilling HIS calling is the path to the deepest joy on this side of heaven. A three-wheeler accident in 2004, took the life of our 14 yr old son, Ben. Navigating that tragedy was a pivotal point of their families life in that it would answer the question: Was God Good and Enough? Fifteen years later, we (and our son Connor) continue to say YES, declaring Christ's comfort and love throughout the journey.

Dan & Anne Daly - Dnaddaly@hamilton.net

God designed marriage for three! Himself, a man and a woman! The ideal is for both the husband and the wife to be striving to be in a closer relationship with the Lord and this will ultimately make a marriage that not only survives but thrives. Dan and I both had previous marriages that failed. We have now been married for 16 years and are determined to be in right fellowship with the Lord and each other so that our marriage can be a positive witness for the Lord.

C2: SEX TRAFFICKING

10:25 - 11:05

Stacey Walling - stacey07w@gmail.com

Hi there. These bios can be so formal, can't they? I'd like to speak a bit more personally. So let me just say that life is a journey. I have experienced some dark valleys, the kind that make you wonder if sunrises even exist anymore. And I've been in awe and thankfulness on the mountain tops of life. I've learned along the way that we are all like shattered pieces of glass. We may have started off beautifully whole, but life has left us in jagged, sharp pieces that hurt when you try to pick them up. Often in my life when I looked at the broken pieces around me, all I could see was brokenness. But God never stops seeing the masterpiece He's created. I have been blessed to have God, my husband, mentors, dear friends, and even my kids help me on my journey to pick up those broken pieces and I love the artwork they are becoming! I love that God has given me the opportunity to walk with others to help them see God's glory still being reflected in what was shattered. These aren't just shards of glass, they are stained with our tears and God's beauty, creativity, love, grace, and blood. And when we put them together, our lives become beautiful, like stained glass windows, with God's light shining through.

Jamie Sands - jsenkble@hotmail.com

My name is Jamie Sands. I'm a mom to 1 boy and 2 girls! A wife to a farmer and a very part time personal trainer. My Lord and Savior knew that I needed the avenue of marriage and parenting to show me the great depth of my need for Him. As I parent two girls I'm challenged by the grave importance of pointing them towards a Heavenly Father who loves them unconditionally, who finds them delightful and beautiful and who takes great care for them. Part of the reason this is a challenge is because as a 37 year old I still struggle to embrace these beautiful truths. The world bombards us with all things brave and beautiful and tells us that if we just be who and what we want to be, if we pursue OUR dreams and goals and desires then we'll be happy...as long as we look out for #1, ME. Satan is working hard for us as women and our daughters to bite into these lies and believe them. Ladies, let's arm our daughters with the truth of God's holy and precious Word. Let's give our daughters the message that they are enough IN CHRIST and that they are dearly loved by their Maker and Creator!

Megan Johnson - megan@ivegotaname.org

Megan provides personal one-on-one help to those vulnerable to or victims of sex trafficking. She uses her past life-experiences to provide emotional support while connecting them to needed services. As she explains, "These girls look at me and they have no hope in their eyes. I was there! I remember that feeling! I tell each girl; your story may not look like my story and mine may not look like yours. BUT being able to relate is huge!" Through unconditional love, Megan uses her past life-experiences to direct girls toward a life they never imagined possible.

Stephanie Olson - stephanie@setmefreeproject.net

Stephanie is a sought-after speaker on the subject of women, youth, human trafficking, and social media safety. Stephanie leads The Set Me Free Project to help prevent youth and young adults from ever seeing the "dark" of trafficking. She speaks to women, youth, and families all over the United States on life issues and the dangers of human trafficking. holds a degree in Psychology. Her experience includes seven years of curriculum writing and development for women experiencing domestic violence, homelessness, and alcohol and drug addictions; 10 years of educating women in the area empowerment and intrinsic value; and nine years of educating youth ages 11-18 in healthy relationships, the dangers of human trafficking, and social media safety. Stephanie has had extensive training, research, and study of human trafficking prevention education and social media safety.

CYNTHIA WILLEY

cynthiawilley69@yahoo.com

I love being a wife of almost 30 years, a mother of 5 children - 4 here on earth and 1 in Heaven, and a Nana to 7 beautiful grandbabies. One of my greatest joys was the privilege of being a 1st grade teacher and elementary vice-principal at a private Christian academy. There was NOTHING more beautiful or fulfilling than being able to share God's word and songs with such tender, open hearts. God's word is life changing and I look forward to being able to share some of His truths with your daughters at this years Princess Party.

DEB NITZEL

Nitzeldeb@gmail.com

Deb Nitzel is a warrior mom of 9 children from Hastings, NE, one of which has Down Syndrome, which is really "Up! Syndromel" Daily, she is learning the depth of her need for Jesus like we all need breath in our lungs each minute of every day! She continues to learn how to apply the truth of Jesus' sacrificial birth, servant-hearted life, and agonizing death to every one of her days' challenges so as to walk in His grace-driven power through his Word. She knows that this life she's living is not all about her and because she knows that Jesus is enough, she is learning to be ok with herself "not being enough" and clinging to and basking in His love for her declared in His Word. She hopes to help you see that same love, which He has for you, through her story today!
