THE "FROZEN" GOSPEL

By Tamarée Goertzen

The ground FREEZES hard with the chill of winter, and maybe our hearts feel a little bit the same way.

When grey skies hang heavy over wintered souls, it's not crazy to feel just a little bit lost.

LOST IN OUR PAST FAILURES, OUR MISTAKES, OUR PAIN

- we wonder if we will ever find our way.

CAN WE EVER BE FULLY KNOWN AND TRULY LOVED?

Hope can grow dim when our failures loom large. And sometimes it's easier to run into a dark forest than to turn towards the light.

Yet, the more we run, the more lost we become. A storm rages inside, and the ice can grow thick over a cold and weary soul. We stand FROZEN; stuck in the life we've chosen.

WHEN WE'RE LOOKING FOR A WAY OUT, THE WAY OUT IS THIS

- a Redeemer who can thaw the most frozen of hearts. GOD, in the
MOST SACRIFICIAL ACT OF TRUE LOVE, SENT HIS SON TO RESCUE US.

And we can have the HAPPY ENDING — the thawing of our frozen hearts — because of the beating of Jesus' heart after death.

HE IS THE ONLY WAY OUT. HIS LOVE FOR US RUNS WARM THROUGH OUR VEINS, AND THE REDEMPTION OF OUR OWN ICY VILLAINOUS HEARTS IS TRUE. GOD SENT A SAVIOR TO FREE
US FROM THIS KINGDOM OF ISOLATION, SO WE COULD LIVE IN HIS KINGDOM FOREVER.

And in the midst of our raging blizzard we start to see it clear - how

ONLY AN ACT OF TRUE LOVE CAN THAW A FROZEN HEART.

A1: DOES MY KID QUALIFY?

9:15-9:55

Stacie Faber - faber@hamilton.net

Psalm 25:4 "Show me your ways, Lord, teach me your paths." As an educator, I see firsthand that our whole lives are spent learning new things! Some things we learn from books, classes, or mentors. Others we learn from our children and seeing the world through their eyes. I am a speech language pathologist who has worked for 20 years in early childhood education. I participated in "speech" myself as a young girl who couldn't pronounce "s" sounds. Our children are our hearts walking outside our bodies. We do anything to help and protect them. We can be worried or afraid if we think our child may be developing at a different pace than expected. God has a plan. We can learn so much from the people God place in our path to help our children.

Carla Christenson - carlachristenson@gmail.com

Carla is a mother to 3 boys: Graham (15), Henry (13) and Oliver (8) and wife to John. She is an occupational therapist at Memorial Community Health in Aurora and serves the Aurora Public Schools. She has a passion for serving children and helps with AUJANA. God has shown me through my own children and the children I work with how differently, but perfectly he creates each one. I would love to share some tips and tricks for helping facilitate your child's development as well as answer questions you have.

Katy Bates - Katykann@gmail.com

I am a stay at home mom and wife! I have 3 kids, Elsie (4), Archer (7), and Lawson (8). Lawson is Autistic and has severe ADHD. It's been a tough and sometimes isolating journey through the ups and downs of having a "special needs" child but I'm so grateful that God felt like I could handle this sweet boy! Even on the worst days he is a blessing. I would love to answer any questions or support other moms who may or may not be on the same path.

A2: SPIRITUAL GIFTS

9:15 - 9:55

Hannah Beck - hannah.beck23@gmail.com

As the body of Christ, we have all been given gifts and talents that we can use to further the Kingdom of God. These gifts and talents are unique and given with purpose by the Holy Spirit. Scripture teaches us about these gifts and how we have been wired with specific desires. It's our responsibility to use these gifts as intended (Romans 12:3-8, Ephesians 4:11-16, 1 Corinthians 12-14). There are a number of spiritual gifts such as teaching, evangelism, hospitality, administration, leadership, giving, wisdom, discernment, faith, encouragement, shepherding, mercy, prophecy, helps, intercession and knowledge. Together, we are going to discover the specific gifts God wired us with and practical ways we can use them.

B1: MOMS IN PRAYER

10:00 - 10:40

Shawna Vinkenberg - vinkenberg@hamilton.net

I am blessed to be married my best friend (28 years) and a mom to 3 wonderful kids and now a precious daughter-in-law as well! Parenting is a delight but it's also hard work! 1 Peter 5:8 reminds us that the Evil One, "prowls around like a roaring lion looking to devour" the mind, body, spirit and lives of our kids. Thankfully ladies, we are not going through this parenting gig alone! We've been given one of the best weapons on this side of heaven---PRAYER -- A direct line of communication and assistance 24/7, 365 days a year with our almighty God- The Maker of Heaven and Earth! When we combine praying God's Word over our kids with the beautiful support of faithful, praying girlfriends, we have an unstoppable weapon in our parenting toolbox-- a weapon that turns fear into faith, worry into peace and sends Satan scurrying away! I'm excited to share about the power of prayer and the endless benefits of regularly praying alongside other sisters-in-Christ. "...pour out your heart like water in the presence of the Lord. Lift up your hands to HIM for the lives of your children..." Lamentations 2:19

Amy Owens - Owensamy10@gmail.com

I'm a mom of 10 children through a blended family that merged 5.5 years ago. I am married to an incredible man who loves Jesus, but a blended family this size is not for the weak. I find my strength through prayer and through moms in prayer, I have also made some life long friendships. I moved from Sioux Falls, SD. Prayer has been my lifeline through my life as a believer. Joining Moms in Prayer has brought me alongside other pray warriors. This group of women and through prayer my transition to a new area with added children has made the impossible possible. To watch prayers answered for our children is one of the many blessings in life. Having sisters in Christ through Moms in Prayer gives me strength to face a hard decisions and to not just survive but to thrive. I thank God for pray warriors.

Dawn Feely - wafeely@gmail.com

I'm attending my very first Princess Party today! My husband of 26 years and I have three children, two sons and one daughter, BUT the princesses are about to outnumber the princes as our oldest and his wife have a princess of their own on the way ... due the day before our youngest graduates from AHS in May. I came to saving faith in Christ as a young girl and have the privilege of working with children and families full-time through children's ministry at Gil Free Church. God moved us here in the fall of 2017 and it's been an honor to pray for Aurora's students and school system with the precious others at Mom's in Prayer for the last five school years. The lyrics of the poem-turned-hymn, "What a Friend we Have in Jesus," and Philippians 4:6 have served as a long-time reminders to me of the importance and the privilege of prayer. Prayer can be a struggle--many days finding the time to truly devote to concentrated prayer is next to impossible. Prayer can also be innate--many of those days I realize prayer is on my every breath. Philippians 4:6, "Be anxious for nothing, but in everything by prayer and supplication, with thanksgiving, let your requests be made known to God."

B2: WOMEN OF THE WORD

10:00 - 10:40

Kaylee Freese - kayleefreese@gmail.com

I believe we are deeply relational people, as our Heavenly Father is deeply relational. It has brought me so much joy to walk in my Christian faith alongside women older and younger than myself.

Gaining wisdom and seeking counsel from those older has been crucial for me during difficult seasons, and I have found no greater joy than to see those younger than myself grow in their walk with the Lord. I truly believe this is a vital piece to our walk with the Lord as we study God's word together. "And let us consider how we may spur one another on toward love and good deeds, not giving up meeting together, as some are in the habit of doing, but encouraging one another--and all the more as you see the Day approaching." Hebrews 10: 24-25 - "As iron sharpens iron, so one person sharpens another." Proverbs 27:17

Briana Broeder - 1bbroeder@gmail.com

I used to have the idea that once I figured out how to have a daily quiet time, it would stick and I'd be set for life... It turns out that's a bit of a fairytale idea and I have had to learn to let it go!!! It has been true in my life that devotion to God and His Word is not a "one size fits all" plan that works for every season. Winter's a good time to stay in and cuddle, but put me in summer (or throw in a job change, or a child, or illness, or a family crisis, etc.) and... we are back at square 1!!! I'm currently a stay at home mom of 2 young children and I'm finding that I have to consciously make an effort to figure out how God's Word can permeate my days! It's a worthy quest and so refreshing when it does happen! God's Word is ALIVE and ACTIVE, it matters today just as much as it did thousands of years ago! Isaiah 55 reminds us that as the rain and snow come down with a purpose, causing life and growth- In the same way, God's Word goes out with a purpose and will not return without accomplishing what He desires, and "succeeding in the matter for which (He) sent it.

Deb Husman - Midshusman@gmail.com

Hi I am a wife, mother, and grandmother. I was saved right after my first child was born and shortly after that I was introduced to women's Bible studies! I never knew such a thing existed! That was 46 years ago now and once I started I have never quit! I have either attended or been leading them and it's been a great joy. As a new believer and young mother, they got me started on a good foundation of studying God's word. The fellowship of doing life together, prayer and Bible study have seen me through every season of life as I have walked with Him. We are to spur one another on and grow in the grace and knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. 2 Peter 3:18

Joann Hattan - joannhattan@gmail.com

God's Word is truly the only thing we can hold fast to in this world. I love being in The Word with others, digging deep as we allow the Holy Spirit to reveal God's message to us. I believe there is nothing random or without meaning if we are willing to dig deep to uncover it. It is a remarkable book with a miraculous history. God has preserved and protected it through the ages and promises to use it yet today. There is nothing else in this world like it and we are blessed to have such a precious gift!

C1: AFTER THE HONEYMOON

10:45 - 11:25

Jason & Kristin Frew - monroechildrensministry@gmail.com

Marriage can be amazing!! We were both older than the average Nebraskan when we met and were married. God used those years of waiting and refining to help build a deep appreciation for the support, companionship, and unity that can be found in marriage. We are each other's best friend but that doesn't mean we haven't walked through times of loneliness, exhaustion, and hurt. In our almost 10 years of marriage we have seen God's consistent leading when we depend on him first rather and then each other.

Jeff & Michelle Sutter - msutter5926@gmail.com

"This is the Day the Lord has made, let us rejoice and be glad in it."
Psalms 118:24

This scripture was on the bulletin for our wedding day and is still on our hearts after 24 years of marriage (celebrating our 25th year THIS MAY!!!). We love knowing God is with us through the ups and downs in marriage, parenting and life. We take things day by day while we work through life together and have come to find out that our strength is not enough but with God on our side, anything is possible.

Dan & Anne Daly - Dnadaly@hamilton.net

God designed marriage for three! Himself, a man and a woman! The ideal is for both the husband and the wife to be striving to be in a closer relationship with the Lord and this will ultimately make a marriage that not only survives but thrives. Dan and I both had previous marriages that failed. We have now been married for 18 years and are determined to be in right fellowship with the Lord and each other so that our marriage can be a positive witness for the Lord.

C2: SEX TRAFFICKING

10:45 - 11:25

Stacey Walling - stacey07w@gmail.com

Hi there. These bios can be so formal, can't they? I'd like to speak a bit more personally. So let me just say that life is a journey. I have experienced some dark valleys, the kind that make you wonder if sunrises even exist anymore. And I've been in awe and thankfulness on the mountain tops of life. I've learned along the way that we are all like shattered pieces of glass. We may have started off beautifully whole, but life has left us in jagged, sharp pieces that hurt when you try to pick them up. Often in my life when I looked at the broken pieces around me, all I could see was brokenness. But God never stops seeing the masterpiece He's created. I have been blessed to have God, my husband, mentors, dear friends, and even my kids help me on my journey to pick up those broken pieces and I love the artwork they are becoming! I love that God has given me the opportunity to walk with others to help them see God's glory still being reflected in what was shattered. These aren't just shards of glass, they are stained with our tears and God's beauty, creativity, love, grace, and blood. And when we put them together, our lives become beautiful, like stained glass windows, with God's light shining through.

Jamie Sands - jamesands2082@gmail.com

My name is Jamie Sands. I'm a mom to 1 boy and 2 girls. A wife to a farmer and a very part time personal trainer. My Lord and Savior knew that I needed the avenue of marriage and parenting to show me the great depth of my need for Him. As I parent two girls I'm challenged by the grave importance of pointing them towards a Heavenly Father who loves them unconditionally, who finds them delightful and beautiful and who takes great care for them. Part of the reason this is a challenge is because as a 37 year old I still struggle to embrace these beautiful truths. The world bombards us with all things brave and beautiful and tells us that if we just be who and what we want to be, if we pursue OUR dreams and goals and desires then we'll be happy...as long as we look out for #1 ME. Satan is working hard for us (as women and our daughters to bite into these lies and believe them. Ladies, let's arm our daughters with the truth of God's holy and precious Word. Let's give our daughters the message that they are enough IN CHRIST and that they are dearly loved by their Maker and Creator!

Megan Johnson - megan@ivegotaname.org

Megan provides personal one-on-one help to those vulnerable to or victims of sex trafficking. She uses her past life-experiences to provide emotional support while connecting them to needed services. As she explains, "These girls look at me and they have no hope in their eyes. I was there! I remember that feeling! I tell each girl your story may not look like my story and mine may not look like yours. BUT being able to relate is huge!" Through unconditional love, Megan uses her past life-experiences to direct girls toward a life they never imagined possible.

Stephanie Olson - stephanie@setmefreeproject.net

Stephanie is a sought-after speaker on the subject of women, youth, human trafficking, and social media safety. Stephanie leads The Set Me Free Project to help prevent youth and young adults from ever seeing the "dark" of trafficking. She speaks to women, youth, and families all over the United States on life issues and the dangers of human trafficking. Holds a degree in Psychology. Her experience includes seven years of curriculum writing and development for women experiencing domestic violence, homelessness, and alcohol and drug addictions; 10 years of educating women in the area empowerment and intrinsic value; and nine years of educating youth ages 11-18 in healthy relationships, the dangers of human trafficking, and social media safety. Stephanie has had extensive training, research, and study of human trafficking prevention education and social media safety.

Colleen Slagle - cslagle@hhcne.org

Hi! I am the praying mother of five faith building, uniquely beautiful adolescent children, ages 11w2, 12 and 14w2. In my spare time I practice Pediatrics at Heartland Health Center, a community health center with a mission to serve at risk children and families in Grand Island, NE. About 7 years ago, God led me to join the Christian Medical and Dental Association in Omaha and I was blessed to meet and later partner with the now founder of Stand Fast in Freedom (SFF). SFF is a faith based nonprofit on a journey to open a residential home to offer healing, restoration and empower child sex trafficking survivors to stand fast in their freedom with new life in Christ. As I continue to learn in my own life what it means to live in the amazing freedom that God offers us through Christ, my heart is to share that same freedom with those most vulnerable. Freedom from sin, freedom from doubt, guilt and shame, freedom to forgive and be forgiven, freedom to love and be loved, freedom from the lies of Satan that speak so loudly in this world and culture, freedom to live in the love of Christ as rescued, restored and redeemed! Galatians 5:11 It is for freedom that Christ has set us free. Stand fast, then, and do not let yourselves be burdened again by a yoke of slavery.

KEYNOTES

LAURIE ANDERSON

landerson@4rhuskies.org

Once upon a time, there was a little girl who had 5 wishes:

- 1 - To love the Lord
- 2 - To find a Prince who would love to serve and bless others!
- 3 - To have a family who would walk with the Lord!
- 4 - To use the gift the Lord has given her to teach Kindergarten!
- 5 - To be intentional each day and in every situation to share God's love.

As we all know Fairy Tales are not real but this little girl got her wishes not by magic but by the grace of God! We are not promised an easy life and she has had a journey to her castle, but she knows God has a plan. I met my Prince, Phil and we have been married for 34 wonderful years and have two sons Levi and Spencer. We are also blessed with beautiful daughters-in-law Charity and Alli. The Lord has blessed us with grandchildren, Noelle and Theo. My life verse is Matthew 5:16 "In the same way, let your light shine before others, that they may see your good deeds and glorify your Father in heaven."

DEB NITZEL

Nitzeldeb@gmail.com

Deb Nitzel is a warrior mom of 9 children from Hastings, NE, one of which has Down Syndrome, which is really "Up! Syndrome!" Daily, she is learning the depth of her need for Jesus like we all need breath in our lungs each minute of every day! She continues to learn how to apply the truth of Jesus' sacrificial birth, servant-hearted life, and agonizing death to every one of her days' challenges so as to walk in His grace-driven power through His Word. She knows that this life she's living is not all about her and because she knows that Jesus is enough, she is learning to be ok with herself "not being enough" and clinging to and basking in His love for her declared in His Word. She hopes to help you see that same love, which He has for you, through her story today!

What is it?

A commitment of meeting 5 weeks with a fellow sister in Christ to get to know one another, pray for one another, and encourage each other in life's daily struggles.

When and where is it?

You and your partner will choose a time and place that works in your schedule each week to meet for one hour together. We hope and plan to offer this program throughout the year so check back for upcoming dates.

What if I can't make it to the kickoff?

That is totally okay! Let us know and we will pair you up with a sister and keep you informed!

Save the date! Let's celebrate!

Once the five weeks are up, we will meet together for a celebration to hear all that God has done in our time together!

VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL
